B. is compensated directly or indirectly by a material advisor with respect to the transaction;

C. has a fee arrangement with respect to the transaction which is contingent on all or part of the intended tax benefits from the transaction being sustained; or

B., below. In addition, for each tax year in which a taxpayer, a member of a federal consolidated group of which a taxpayer is a member[, or a member of a combined group of which a taxpayer is a member,] is required to make a disclosure statement under Treasury Regulations Section 1.6011-4 with respect to a reportable transaction, including a listed transaction, in which the taxpayer participated; such taxpayer shall file a copy of such disclosure with the Department as provided in Section II.1.B., below.

Disclosure of a reportable transaction entered into after February 28, 2000 shall also be attached to any amended [State] income tax return filed after December 31, [year Act is adopted] where such filing reflects a determination by the Internal Revenue Service of the federal tax treatment of a reportable transaction.

C. Effective Date. The provisions of this Section II.1. shall apply to any reportable transaction entered into after February 28, 2000, for any tax year or years for which the transaction remains undisclosed, and for which the statute of limitations on

i. The Director, in his or her sole discretion, may waive or abate all or any portion of any penalty imposed by this Section II.2. with respect to any violation if:

(a) the violation is with respect to a reportable transaction other than a listed transaction, and

(b) rescinding the penalty would promote compliance with the requirements of [State Income Tax Act] and effective tax administration.

ii. Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any determination under this Section II.2.C. may not be reviewed in any judicial proceeding.

D. Effective Date. Penalty imposed under this Section II.2. shall apply to any failure to disclose any listed transaction entered into after February 28, 2000, or any other reportable transaction entered into after the effective date of this act, as required by Section II.1., for any tax year or years for which the transaction remains undisclosed, and for which the statute of limitations on assessment, taking into account the extension provided under Section II.4., has not expired as of 60 days after the effective date of this Act.

3. Penalties Related to Understatement of Tax Resulting from a Reportable Transaction.

A. Understatement Penalty.

i. Imposition and Amount.

(a) If a taxpayer has a reportable transaction understatement for any taxable year, there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to 20 percent of the amount of such understatement.

(b) For purposes of this Section II.3.A.,

(1) The term “reportable transaction understatement” means the sum of:

(A) product of:

(i) the highest rate of tax imposed by [Section on state corporate income tax rates]; and

(ii) the amount of the increase (if any) in [State] taxable income which results from a difference between the proper tax treatment of an item to which Section II.1.A. applies and the taxpayer’s treatment of such item as shown on the taxpayer’s return of tax, including an amended return provided such amended return is filed prior to the date the taxpayer is first contacted by the Department regarding the examination of the tax year for which such amended return is filed; The amount of the increase in [State] taxable income for a particular tax year includes the restatement for another tax year to which a loss or deduction is carried forward or carried back that is attributable to the reportable transaction for that year in which the carry forward or carry back of the loss or deduction applies; and

(B) the amount of the decrease (if any) in the aggregate amount of credits which results from a difference between the taxpayers treatment of an item to which this section applies (as shown on the taxpayer’s return of tax) and the proper tax treatment of such item.

For purposes of Section II.3.A.i.(b)(1)(A), any reduction of the excess of deductions allowed for the taxable year over gross income for such year, and any reduction in the amount of capital losses which would be allowed for such year, shall be treated as an increase in taxable income.

(2) This Section II.3.A. shall apply to any item which is attributable to:

(A) any listed transaction, and
(B) any reportable transaction (other than a listed transaction) if a significant purpose of such transaction is the avoidance or evasion of federal or [State] income tax.

(c) Section II.3.A.i.(a), above, shall be applied by substituting “30 percent” for “20 percent” with respect to the portion of any reportable transaction understatement with respect to which the requirements of section II.1 are not met.

(d) Except as provided in regulations, in no event shall any tax treatment included with an amendment or supplement to a return of tax be taken into account in determining the amount of any reportable transaction understatement if amendment or supplement is filed after the earlier of the date the taxpayer is first contacted by the Director regarding the examination of the return or such other date as is specified by the Director.

ii. Assessment Date. Penalty imposed under this Section II.3.A. shall be deemed assessed on the due date of the [State] income tax return which shows the understatement of tax resulting from a reportable transaction to which such penalty relates.

B. Interest Penalty.

i. 50% Interest Penalty Prior to Contact; Imposition and Amount.

For any amended return filed after [end of voluntary compliance or date of enactment if no voluntary compliance program] and before the taxpayer is contacted by the Internal Revenue Service or the Department regarding a reportable transaction, there shall be added to any reportable transaction understatement, as determined under Section II.3.A.i.(b)(1), a penalty, in addition to any other applicable penalties, equal to 50% of the interest assessed under Section [Interest Section] on such reportable transaction understatement for the period beginning on the last date prescribed by law for the payment of such tax (determined without regard to extensions) and ending on the date of payment.

ii. 100% Interest Penalty After Contact; Imposition and Amount. If the taxpayer has been contacted by the Internal Revenue Service or the Department regarding a reportable transaction, there shall be added to any reportable transaction understatement, as determined under Section II.3.A.i.(b)(1), a penalty, in addition to any other applicable penalties, equal to 100% of the interest assessed under Section [Interest Section] on such reportable transaction understatement for the period beginning on the last date prescribed by law for the payment of such tax (determined without regard to extensions) and ending on the date of the notice of proposed assessment is mailed.

iii. Assessment Date. Penalty imposed under this Section II.3.B. shall be deemed assessed upon the assessment of the interest by which such penalty is calculated and shall be collected and paid in the same manner as such interest.

i. Except as provided in Section II.3.C.ii. below, the Director, in his or her sole discretion, may waive or abate all or any portion of any penalty imposed by Section II. 3. with respect to any portion of a reportable transaction understatement if it is shown that the taxpayer had reasonable cause for such portion and acted in good faith with respect to such portion. Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any determination by the Director under this subdivision may not be reviewed in any judicial proceeding.

ii. Section II.3.C.i. shall not apply to any reportable transaction understatement unless:

(a) the relevant facts affecting the tax treatment of the item are adequately disclosed in accordance with all requirements of Section II.1. and Department rules and regulations. A taxpayer failing to fully disclose shall be treated as meeting the requirements of this Section II.3.C.ii.(a) if the penalty for that failure to disclose was waived pursuant to Section II.2.C.;

(b) there is or was substantial authority for such treatment; and

(c) the taxpayer reasonably believed that such treatment was more likely than not the proper treatment. A taxpayer shall be treated as having a reasonable belief with respect to the tax treatment of an item only if such belief:

(1) is based on the facts and law that exist at the time the return which includes such tax treatment is filed, and

(2) relates solely to the taxpayer's chances of success on the merits of such treatment and does not take into account the possibility that a return will not be audited, such treatment will not be raised on audit, or such treatment will be resolved through settlement if it is raised; and

(3) does not rely upon the opinion of a disqualified tax advisor or on a disqualified opinion.

D. Effective Date. Penalty imposed under Section II.3. shall apply to any understatement of tax resulting from a listed transaction entered into after February 28, 2000, or from any other reportable transaction enter into after the effective date of this act, in any tax year or years for which the statute of limitations on assessment, taking into account the extension provided under Section II.4., has not expired as of the effective date of this Act.

If a taxpayer fails to include on any return or statement for any taxable year any information with respect to a listed transaction as required under Section II.1., the time for assessment of any tax imposed by [State Income Tax Act] with respect to such transaction shall not expire before the date which is 1 year after the earlier of (A) the date on which the Director is furnished the information so required, or (B) the date that a taxpayer meets the requirements of Section IV.2. with respect to a request by the Director under Section IV.2.B. relating to such transaction with respect to such taxpayer.
